Art Unit: 1742

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by RU2114925 (RU'925).

RU '925 discloses at Figure an apparatus for compacting particulate comprising:

an upper punch with a first press-washer (7);

a lower punch with a second press-washer (6); and a pressing table (4).

RU'925 further discloses wherein the second press-washer is of a smaller diameter than the particle capsule wall by at least one capsule wall width.

The Examiner finds that claim 15 which is drawn to defining the work space dimensions is generically met by the similar structure.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1742

The term "capsule cowl" does not have an antecedent basis. It appears that this term is directed at the capsule butt-end cover.

5. Claims 1-12 are allowable, the Examiner finding that the prior art does not teach or suggest the loading into a capsule the briquettes formed from scrap so as to be hot deformed into a billet.

6. The Examiner notes that reference C7 of the IDS of 8/13/04 has a publication date listed of 5/15/01, which appears to be the application date, the publication date found to be 4/10/03 (see PTO form 1449). The Examiner suggests that the data for the other cited references be checked and updated as necessary.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Daniel J. Jenkins whose telephone number is 571-272-1242. The examiner can normally be reached on M-TH 6:30AM-5:00PM.
